PART 6 Production:
Situation

Situations

You and your friend are talking during lunch break. You want to know what your friend usually does in their free time. Create a short dialogue between you and your friend.

Instruction:

- Write a dialogue between two people (A and B).
- The dialogue should have at least 6–8 lines.
- Include questions and answers about what they like to do in their free time.
- You can also ask when, where, and with whom they do those activities.

A sample conversation

E.g.

John : Hello, what do you usually do in your free time?

Tom : I enjoy watching movies and playing video games. How about you?

John : I always read books or ride a bike.

Tom : That's cool! Do you ride alone?

John : Sometimes, although I usually go with my brother.

Tom : Nice! I'd want to try that as well. Where do you normally go cycling?

John : At a park near my home. It is calm and relaxing.

Tom : That sounds great! Perhaps I will join you next time.
